CONTENT

Foreword ........................................................................................................................................... 7
Remus CREŢAN, Paul WOODMAN, Ioan Sebastian JUCU, Ana IANĂŞ

Retrospect: A Toponymist’s Observations on Memory ................................................................. 9
Paul WOODMAN

Thoughts on a concept of language geography ................................................................................ 33
Peter JORDAN

Islands’ metamorphoses: two river islands in Nanjing, China, as a case study in historical toponymy and cartography .................................................. 47
Xu DUO DUO

The origins of naming process: toponymic archaeology of two Indo-European place names ................................................................................................................. 57
Francesco PERONO CACCIAFOCO

From agro-towns to ‘territorial poles’ in the French decade: reinterpreting the urban processes of southern Italy in the modern age ...................................................... 69
Emilia SARN'O

Economic restructuring and contrasting urban patterns in Romanian post-socialist municipalities: Experiences of Timiş County, Romania ................... 79
Ioan Sebastian JUCU, Remus CREŢAN, Fabian TIMOFTE

Historical concerns on the traditional involvement of sanitary institutions in population healthcare: the case of Romanian areas ................................... 97
Mirabela PETCULESCU

EVENT: Rural Banat: Realities, Perspectives, Opportunities and Challenge ............................. 107
Emanuel COPILAŞ
BOOK REVIEWS

Molise-Montenegro Cross-Border Cooperation, Emilia SARNO, Editor .................... 111
Ioan Sebastian JUCU

Zece pentru Lugoj. O istorie Neconventionala a Lugojului, [Ten for Lugoj. An Unconventional History of Lugoj Municipality], Cristian GHINEA ................................. 113
Ioan Sebastian JUCU